

2016 NFU COLLEGE CONFERENCE ON COOPERATIVES

3-Day National Conference

February 18-21, 2016

Minneapolis, MN

Embassy Suites, Minneapolis

Airport FRESH LOCAL

WHAT WILL WE LEARN?

History, Philosophy & Core Principles of Cooperatives - Real Life Examples of a Co-op Business Model - Build on Existing Co-op Knowledge- Awareness of Career & Member Co-op Opportunities- And Much More!

Key Features

Observe a Variety of Co-op Structures
Co-op Tours
Expert Presenters & Panels
Premier Learning Opportunity
Explore the Viability & Adaptability of Co-ops

The NFU College Conference on Cooperatives is the place to learn the basics or build on your existing knowledge of cooperatives. This national conference brings together college students and others from across the country to explore the value of co-ops such as supply, service, marketing and worker co-ops. Tours include cooperatives ranging from food and senior housing to CHS, Inc.

National Farmers
Union
FOUNDATION

